eee. a money judgment for approximately $4,160,000 in United States currency pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853 and Title 18, United States Code, Section 982(a)(1). ECF No. 261.

On March 22, 2022, Defendant Cory Taz-Dalton Hack entered into a plea agreement with the United States in which he agreed to plead guilty to Counts One, Two, and Four of the Third Superseding Indictment, charging violations of Title 21, United States Code, §§ 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(C) and 846; Title 18, United States Code, § 1956(a)(1)(A)(i), (B)(i), (ii) and (h); and Title 18, United States Code, § 924(c)(1)(A)(i) and to forfeit to the United States his interest in the property identified in the Forfeiture Allegation of the Third Superseding Indictment. ECF No. 570.

The Court has determined, based upon the evidence set forth in the plea agreement, that the Government has established the requisite nexus between the property described herein and in the Forfeiture Allegation of the Third Superseding Indictment and the offenses to which Defendant has pleaded guilty.

By virtue of the plea agreement, the Government is entitled to a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture and to possession of the property pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, § 853 and Title 18, United States Code, § 982(a)(1).

Accordingly:

1. The above-described property is hereby forfeited to the United States for disposition in accordance with the law, subject to the provisions of Title 21, United States Code, § 853(n).

2. Defendant shall pay to the United States a personal money judgment in an amount to be determined by the Court at sentencing based on the defendant's drug responsibility.

3. Upon entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General or his designee is authorized to seize the above-described property in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3).

4. Pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, § 853 and Title 18, United States Code, § 982(a)(1), the Government shall publish for at least 30 consecutive days on the Government's official website, www.forfeiture.gov, notice of the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, notice of the United States' intent to dispose of the property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct, and notice that any person, other than Defendant, having or claiming a legal interest in the above-described property must file a petition with the Court (and serve a copy on Bruce Rhoades, Assistant United States Attorney), within thirty (30) days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier.

This notice shall state that the petition shall be for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the property, shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

The Government may also, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in the property that is the subject of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified.

5. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(4), this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing or before if Defendant consents and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment.

6. The Government may conduct any discovery it considers necessary to identify, locate, or dispose of the property subject to forfeiture or substitute assets for such property.

7. Upon adjudication of all third-party interests, this Court will enter a Final Order of Forfeiture in which all interests will be addressed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
